D vs. “th” voiced Minimal Pairs

“th" is often substituted with other sounds. The voiced "th" is generally replaced with /d/
See the list below. The term “minimal pair” refers to one change in sound that changes the entire meaning of a word. Take a look at these words and see if you make these substitutions in your regular speech as well. As you say the second “th” version, put your tongue tip between your teeth, blow, and add your voice vibration.
