PROactive PRONUNCIATION

Voiced “Th” Middle Sentences

My mother called today
That bird lost its feather
I’d love another piece of cake
That was a fantastic smoothie
The weather is wonderful today
Your father is visiting next week
I have never played tetherball before
Tell your brother to come in for dinner
We worked on the project together for six months
They were bathing in the creek
My brother is my best friend
We went shopping for clothing
Either way you look at it, there is a decision to make
Why don’t you gather some sticks for the fire?
My belt is made of leather
Where is the other glove?
I’d rather be at home than at this work conference
That is the smoothest shave I’ve ever had
What an amazing strawberry smoothie
That sauna was really soothing
You’ll need to tether that rope to a tree
The weatherman was right again
Are you worthy of this honor?