PROactive PRONUNCIATION

T End Sentences

Release the air after each /t/ sound

I love that coat

Why is that hat so flat?

The bat ate all of the fruit

He went out to sail on his boat

The kite flew to a new height

I put the pit in my pocket for a bit

The cat loves to sleep in that big boot

Why doesn't the boat float in the moat?

The elephant would only eat one peanut

I can't believe that cute rabbit bit his foot

It is so dark even the flashlight won't work

She brought a coat and a jacket on the trip

I tried with all my might to turn on the light

The parrot and the rat are afraid of the cat

I walked(t) on the mat to be as quiet as possible

When I wait, I like to sit and chat with strangers