PROactive PRONUNCIATION

K End Sentences

Release the air after each /k/ sound

Look at his bike lock

I lost my music book

I want to lick that cupcake

That's a very sick peacock

Look at the back of my neck

I had a milkshake for a snack

Don't smack my cheek

She is too sick to go to work

Want to go for a walk or a hike?

Give me back my rock and stick

I will walk by the truck for good luck every day

A peacock neck is longer than the neck of a duck

He has back pain, a headache, and a sick stomach