PROactive PRONUNCIATION

N vs. NG Minimal Pair Sentences

Compare the words below. N uses the tip of the tongue, “ng” uses the back of the tongue. If you struggle with adding the /k/ or hard/g/ in “ing” words, say the "ng" words with and without a hard /g/ or /k/ at the end. Be sure that you can hear the difference.

I was going to go in
It is not a sin to sing
She sang about the rising sun
The king takes care of his kin
The lion was lying in the pasture
The pans made a pang on the floor
I’m raising children who love raisins
She ran away as she rang the alarm
I will be seizing that seasoning
Have you hung the clothes to dry, hun?
The fang of the wolf hung near the fan
The gardener was guarding the garden
That is a really thin little thing
The tin can made a ting sound
She wags her tongue a ton!
The bird with the broken wing didn’t win
The worker was done shoveling the animal dung at the zoo
The gong was gone, and no one knew who had taken it
He decided to run after the bully wrung the rag in anger
The community decided to ban all noises and banging sounds after 7pm
I was stunned when I learned that I had been stung