PROactive PRONUNCIATION

“J” Middle Phrases

aged object
badger cages
badges of honor
banjo from Egypt
bridges in Egypt
caged animal
caged pigeon
college project
conjoined twins
courageous soldier
crazy badger
damaged agent
dangerous blue jay
dodged a bullet
edges of pages
edges of the paper
eject the pilot
enjoy a seat
fidget in your chair
fudged the numbers
garbage banjo
he budged
hedged my bets
hold the object
hugest badger
I apologize
imagine that inject the medicine
intelligent argument
judge the agent
judged by a judge
largest group of judges latitude and longitude
lodged in my tooth
magic show
magical stages
major improvement
new manager
new project
nudged him to do it
object on the pages
on a budget
oxygen is essential
pajamas to bed
pigeon in the street
played with the gadget register to be joined reject that position
rejected angel
rejected marriage proposal secret agent
storage and lodging
storage cages
trimmed the hedges
turn the pages