PROactive PRONUNCIATION

IRE Sentences

The liar retired

Cut the wire with pliers

The boy admired the umpire

Her entire jug of milk expired

He was tired after the campfire

The plane flew higher over Ireland

I'd like to inquire about the tragic fire

The fireman is tired of putting out fires

Never get too tired to inspire your students

The Empire State Building is higher than I thought

They got a first-time buyers discount on the pliers

The choir performed in the Ireland folk music competition

She put the clothes into the dryer before she ironed them

She wants to hire a new worker because the old employee was a liar

They were tired after they posted a lost and found flyer to find their dog