PROactive PRONUNCIATION

L Blend Final Words and Sentences

Final “L” Blend Words build

child
cold crumpled
emerald
field
filled
film
fold
gold grilled gulp
held
helm
help
hold mild
mold
old rolled shield
sold spilled told wild
world
yelp
yield
elk
milk
silk

Final “L” Blend Sentences

The child wanted to build a fort in the field

I watched an old film about fools gold

She spilled milk all over her silk shirt

I held the sold sign in my hand

She crumpled and rolled the paper as she asked for help

She called all of the animals in the wild

PROactive PRONUNCIATION

Final "LT" Blends

belt	melt	fault
bolt	molt	guilt
colt	pelt	knelt
cult	salt	quilt
felt	silt	smelt
halt	tilt	difficult
hilt	volt	stilt
jilt	wilt	vault
jolt	adult	revolt
kilt	dealt	insult
malt	dwelt	result

Final L-Blend Sentences:

The insult resulted in a revolt

The belt was difficult for any adult to close

John felt some guilt that he let the ice cream melt

I felt a jolt of cold after eating the milkshake

He felt the material of the kilt to see if it matched the quilt

She knelt down to see the result of the spill on the carpet