PROactive PRONUNCIATION

Flap T Phrases

Pronounce the “t” as a “d”

What a good idea	“whada good idea”
Whatever	“whadever”
What are you doing?	“whaderyuh doing?”
What is it?	“whadizit?”
A lot of pieces of paper	“uh lahduh pieces of paper”
Get in	“gedin”
Get out of here	“gedouduh here”
Eat out	“eadout”
Take it out	“takeidout”
Wait in line	“waidin line”
I heard a lot about it	“I heard uh lodaboudit”
Go to bed	“goduhbed”
From me to you	“from meduhyou”
Go to work	“goduhwork”
It is	“idiz”
It ought to be so	“idoddabeesow”
Say it again	“sayidagain”

Flap /t/ phrases:

art exhibit
at a glance
ate a pie
beat it
bet I can
bit into an apple
but our thoughts are
court announcement
cut an orange
date at the movies
duty awaits
eight apples
fight again
flat iron
get away
go to a party

good data
got another one
great idea
hit a car
hot outside
hurt ourselves
in the city
it always has
late again
let out a laugh
light up
lot over there
met over here
Matt arrived
net outcome
not always true
note on my paper
out of the bag
Peter Piper
port of entry
pot of gold
put it down
quite a scene
rate out of 10
set our table
sheet of paper
shot a movie
shut a window
sight unseen
sort of
spit the pit out
spot on
suit of armor
suite eleven
title of the book
total amount
vital information
vote again
wait a minute
well noted
white apron
wrote a book
yet again