PROactive PRONUNCIATION

Mixed T Words and Sentences

Here are some words to help you practice your /t/'s. Remember, depending on what is surrounding the /t/, it will be pronounced differently.

Words:

Beginning (aspirated)

table	teeth	tooth
take	tiger	touch
talk	time	towel
tall	toad	toy
taste	toast	turkey
teacher	toe	turtle
team	tongue	two
tear	tool

Middle (true /t/) *note the /t/ is in the STRESSED syllable guitar	eighteen	motel

potato	hotel

*These middle /t/s are not turning to /d/ even though vowels may surround them. Here, the /t/ begins on the stressed syllable, so it will be a true aspirated /t/.

Middle (lingual flap /t/) *Pronounced as a light /d/beauty	little	Saturday

better	butterfly	water
city	tomato
butter	biting

Middle (glottal stop /t/ before /n/)

cotton

rotten kitten

mitten

button

Mixed /t/ Sentences:

That was a flirty article

I'll eat it in a bit

I bought thirty artichokes

Move the portable artifacts

There is a shortage of fertilizer

Could you heat it up first?

She met a nice guy in Seattle

My cat is getting fatter and fatter

She drank a lot of bottles of water

My daughter wore a little sweater

Peter put a letter on the water meter

The pretty British translator had to pick it up

You better not miss the meeting at eight o'clock

I love knitting in autumn for a little indoor activity

We celebrated graduating university with forty burritos

The waiter said he would send me a pot of water later

I told the waiter to bring it a little later since we're not done eating

I bought an automatic automobile for twenty thousand dollars

It doesn't matter what city is prettiest, but it does matter which city is hotter

The boater was very sensitive about losing his thirty fish and started pouting