PROactive PRONUNCIATION

D End Sentences

Hand me the old bread
Could you send it to me?
Where did Brad find that bird?
I need to find a wide round bed
She made the bread in an old wood stove
There was a long pulled thread on my bed
The kid slid down the slide with her friend
My food always tastes weird when it's cold
I ordered a salad, not a hand full of old lettuce
My old friend did a good job and got paid
I'm afraid the red bird is dead in the cold mud
She was mad that her friend was being so loud
My child loves to ride and slide in the playground
My friend said she wanted to have a child in her mid-thirties
There's a weird kind of wild oat bread that my friend likes
I read about a boy who was sad because he knocked his head
The bad dog is not afraid of sand
Dad said he was in a bad mood
I'm such an avid reader, I fell asleep reading and woke up with bed head
They had to bend the rules when they got to the end of the road
I fed the group with bread and food so they didn't have to fend for themselves
The cold toad fled to safety at the end of the pond
The kid was good at catching cod
I was very fond of the good little kid that ended the family feud
She opened the lid and found nothing but an old pea pod
We played with our dad near the pond water
She pulled the weed out of the sand with her hand quite easily
I felt both sad and mad when he got rid of my wizard wand
I thought he was a dud, but my friend thought he was a stud
She grabbed an old rod to take the wood out of the mud
The red-headed girl slid down the slide