PROactive PRONUNCIATION

3-Consonant Blend

Words & Sentences

You may find it helpful to elongate or stretch the one sound that causes you the most difficulty. For many, the /r/ or /L/ is particularly difficult.

/str/:

strong	street	streamers
strawberry	stretch	stroller string	stretcher	stream
straw	striped	straight

STR Sentences:

I saw strawberries in the street

We walked with our strollers in a straight line

They opened up the striped stretcher in the street

He needed a strong straw for his strawberry milkshake

/spr/:

spring	sprain	sprite
sprinkler	sprouts	sprung
spray	spruce	spring roll
spread	sprinkle

SPR Sentences:

I had a Sprite and spring rolls for lunch

I sprained my leg over a spruce tree root

PROactive PRONUNCIATION

I spread my blanket out on a cool spring day
We take out the sprinkler and spray the grass in the spring

/spl/:

splash	splatter	splurge
splat	splinter	splendid split	spleen	splendorous

SPL Sentences:

Want to split the bill?
He splashed and splattered in the water
I want to splurge on a splendid new outfit
She laughed so hard she almost split her spleen

/skr/:

scream	scrambled	scribble
scrub	screen	screw
scrape	scrap	scripture
screwdriver	scratch	scruples

SKR Sentences:

The screen was screwed on tightly
I scrubbed the scribbles off of the wall
I screamed when I scraped my knee with a screwdriver Always cover your scratches and scrapes with a Band-Aid