PROactive PRONUNCIATION

“IN” & “ING” Sentences

It’s written in English

I will bring lots of drinks to the cabin

My skin felt cold in the frigid wind

I found a thin pink ring on the rink

Saving and investing is important

She will spin and sing with her twin sister

I can feel the spring air when I open my window

He grinned and winked at me. Did you see that?

You can win a mint if you begin that indie album

I intend to be the one eating the most at the cinema

I insist that you invite your loving wife to the party

Your cousin is coping well with her shrinking wardrobe

She will be going there and doing a lot of fun things, I think

I would have been the winner of the winter race, but I got an injury and didn’t finish

My finger was caught in the filing cabinet, so I went to the walk-in clinic

The singer was informed that there was a crying infant in the audience

I’m going to binge-watch that movie about the king who killed the prince in his kingdom