PROactive PRONUNCIATION

“SCHWA” /ə/ in the word “A”

The word “a” is often pronounced as “uh.”

Examples:

a desk	“uh”
a fork	“uh”
a report	“uh”
a walk	“uh”

Let’s practice:

a paper got jammed
do you have a clock here?
have a great evening
have a nice day
he had a plan
he’s a lawyer
I grabbed a piece of paper
I had a report due today
I held a cup in my hand
I learned a lesson
I love a good story
I need a pen
I need a washroom break
I need to make a decision she sat in a chair
that was a good decision that’s a great plan
there’s a crumb on your shirt we did a good job
we had a deal
we had a discussion
we’re in a good place
what a beautiful place
what a day
what a game-changer
what a great game
won a prize
you had a great idea