PROactive PRONUNCIATION

“OH” Mixed Phrases & Sentences

Mixed Phrases:

coast to coast cold Coke
don’t smoke over here golden ornament homeowner low profile mostly over no home phone old stone road old toast
open road show on the road slow-motion in the ocean tow motor no notice

Mixed Sentences:

Oh no!

I’ll have an espresso to go

Open the old cold Coke bottle

That ghost can’t show his bones

Joan, please use soap to wash your clothes

Joe noticed the gold was too heavy to hold

I want to go rollerblading from coast to coast

The homeowner couldn’t open the old stove

If you roll this dough too much, it won’t grow

I invested all the money I own in old postage stamps

Do you know the joke about the golden ornament?

I hope it doesn’t snow while we’re on the open road

I don’t know if Beau came to the old stone road home

Don’t open the window in the cold when it’s 20 below!

We voted that you cannot smoke over here anymore

The slow-motion video is almost over

It’s hard to phone home from a boat if you have no phone

I will keep a low profile and won’t give out the code even under oath