PROactive PRONUNCIATION

“AW” /aʊ/ Sentences

I found a mouse
Now I know how she found it
Always pronounce that last vowel
I heard a loud, powerful sound downstairs
There’s a large amount of clowns crowded downtown
I don’t know how to pronounce those nouns and vowels
I’m feeling a bit down and out
I’m counting all the horses I see around the mountain
In an emergency, you might have to give mouth to mouth
The proud scout shouted with a powerful voice
That left a sour taste in my mouth
I’ll eat a thousand pounds of flour cookies
I found out about the announcement too late
Our power went out about an hour ago
The announcement is in about an hour
The flowers are so beautiful down south
She found the cow behind a mound of dirt
How do you pronounce the word account?
I looked at the clouds for hours and hours
The sound was coming from around the corner
She put her gown down on the round brown table
The clouds turned brown around the dusty mountain town
The hound was making a strange sound from his rounded mouth
I had to shout out loud to find out
Is your spouse wearing a brown blouse?