PROactive PRONUNCIATION

New Information Stress

Generally, new information is going to have the greatest stress. When someone asks a Wh-question, the content word that carries the meaning in the answer will hold the stressed syllable.

Examples:

What's your name?	My name is Sarah.
Where are you from?	I'm from Germany.
Where do you go to school?	I go to Harvard.
What do you do?	I'm a teacher.
