PROactive PRONUNCIATION

Syllable Rules #5

Compound Nouns vs. Compound Verbs:

A compound noun is a noun made up of two or more existing words. In most compound nouns, the stress occurs on the first word.

BUS stop
CHALKboard
FLASHlight
FOOTball
HAIRcut
KEYboard
LIGHTbulb
OVERboard
PAPERweight
SCIENCE test
SMALLtalk
SUNset
WASHING machine
WATER bottle
ASHtray
DOWNtime
OUTcome
CUTback
NEWSpaper
GREENhouse
WHITEboard
BATHroom
AIRline
NOTEbook
BASEball
HOT dog
KEY chain
POLICE car
SAVINGS account
BANK teller
MOUTH-watering
THOUGHT-provoking

Compound Verbs and Adjectives:

Compound verbs and adjectives are made up of more than one verb or adjective. The stress in these types of compounds occurs in the second word.

absent-MINDED
brand-NEW
brightly-LIT
deeply-ROOTED
densely-POPULATED
early ON
far-REACHING
forward-THINKING
good-LOOKING
highly-RESPECTED
high-SPIRITED
kind-HEARTED
left-HANDED
long-LASTING
narrow-MINDED
never-ENDING
old-FASHIONED
open-MINDED
out-DATED
overBOOK
overREACT
quick-WITTED
second-HAND
self-CONSCIOUSLY
short-HAIRED
slow-MOVING
strong-WILLED
under–STAND
well-BEHAVED
well-EDUCATED
well-KNOWN
well-PAID