PROactive PRONUNCIATION

Linking Vowels: Y and W Shadows

Words that end in an “eee/aheee” (like /i/ “eee”, /ai/ “AH EE”, /ei/ “EH EE, /oi/ “OH EE”) vowel: add a “y” sound e.g.

see it	see yit
pie over there	pie yover there
say a word	say ya word
boy at home	boy yat home

Words that end in an “ow/oo” (like /o/ “oh”, /au/”ow” /u/”oo”) vowel: add a “w” sound e.g.

no one	no wone
how is it	how wis it
go over	go wover

Remember, you must link the words together to successfully add the “y” and “w” shadows.

How woften
Who ware you?
You ware awesome
Go waway
Do wover
Do wunto wothers
Compare apples to woranges
If it comes to wit
Add insult to winjury
Do wI have your number?
So wI decided to do wit!
It takes one to know wone
To weveryone I know
How wabout another drink?
No wone really knows
Know wall about it
You ware the best
Just do wit
Grow wup
Two wapples
Argue wover it

Caribou wantlers
He yis
My yapartment
We’ll see yabout that Free yat last
My yother half
The yend of the road
Judge a book by yits cover
Be yopen to possibilities
I yonly have eyes for you
He yisn’t that bad
Bye yeveryone!
They yare here
We yaren’t going
Say yit aint so!
My yonly choice
Me yand my friends are going
See yeveryone tonight!
Only yyou would know!
Way yover there
Day yafter day